

1997 Hall of Fame Inductee

Dale Aebischer

Dale Aebischer was born in Wisconsin in 1906. He graduated from Chilton High School and then attended the UW-Madison, majoring in agriculture education and graduating in 1928. He began his teaching career at Mineral Point High School on July 1, 1928 and remained there for two years. He then assumed the vocational agriculture teaching position at Eau Claire-Memorial High School for the next 16 years. In November 1946, Dale became a state supervisor at the State Vocational Board. Dale held this position until his retirement in 1972.

In 1981 Dale suffered a severe stroke from which he did not recover and passed away later that year. His family includes a daughter, Carole, who lives in St. Petersburg Florida, and a son Edward, who lives in Tennessee.
